

HS Sociology

District Curriculum Heading	District Curriculum Statement	Aligned State Standard	Teacher Resources	Performance Indicator
Culture and Social Structure	Students will gain the ability to define sociology, and distinguish it from other social sciences.	18.B.5	Textbook	Students will define sociology, and distinguish it from other social sciences.
Culture and Social Structure	Students will be introduced to the historical development of sociology, including the work of the classical theorists.	18.C.5	Textbook	Students will be describe to the historical development of sociology, including the work of the classical theorists.
Culture and Social Structure	Students will learn to Identify the main theoretical perspectives in sociology and apply those to the understanding of social situations.	18.B.5	Textbook and In Class Activity	Students will learn to Identify the main theoretical perspectives in sociology and apply those to the understanding of social situations.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will gain the ability to analyze society in terms of its five basic social institutions: family, economic system, education, political system, and religion.	18.B.4	Culminating Project	The students will gain the ability to analyze society in terms of its five basic social institutions: family, economic system, education, political system, and religion.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will learn to identify the ways in which sociologist apply the scientific method in research.	16.A.5a	Textbook/Project	Students will identify the ways in which sociologist apply the scientific method in research.

HS Sociology

Culture and Social Structure	The students will learn to define culture, and distinguish between material and non-material culture traits.	18.A.4	Textbook/Project	The students will define culture, and distinguish between material and non-material culture traits.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will introduced to the five basic components of culture.	18.B.4	Textbook/Project Reading	The students will describe the five basic components of culture.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will learn to identify and provide examples of cultural universals.	18.B.4	Texbook/Supplemental Reading	The students will identify and provide examples of cultural universals.
Culture and Social Structure	The studetns will gain an understanding of what is meant by ethnocentrism and cultural relativism.	18.C.5	Textbook/Supplemental Reading	The studetns will describe what is meant by ethnocentrism and cultural relativism.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will be able to identify the factors that account for variations among and within cultures.	18.C.4a 18.C.4b	Texbook/Supplemental Reading	The students will identify the factors that account for variations among and within cultures.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will learn to examine the basic values of American culture.	18.A.4	In Class Activity/ Project	The students will describe the basic values of American culture.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will understand how societies strive to maintain social control.	18.A.4	Textbook	The students will describe how societies strive to maintain social control.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will be able to identify and explain several factors that resist and contribute to cultural change.	16.C.5b	Computer Lab Activity	The students will identify and explain several factors that resist and contribute to cultural change.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will learn to identify the two major components of social sturcture , and explain how they affect human behavior.	18.B.5	Textbook	The students will learn to identify the two major components of social sturcture , and explain how they affect human behavior.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will learn to identify various factors that are used to distinguish among social groups.	18.A.4	In Class Activity/Textbook	The students will identify various factors that are used to distinguish among social groups.
Culture and Social Structure	The students will be introduced to the five basic modes of human interaction.	16.B.5b	Textbook	The students will be introduced to the five basic modes of human interaction.
Culture and Social Structure	Students will learn to recognize bureaucracies and explain how they function.	15.C.4b	Textbook/Supplemental Reading	Students will learn to recognize bureaucracies and explain how they function.

HS Sociology

The Individual and Society	The students will be introduced to the four main factors that affect the development of personality.	18.A.4	In Class Activity/Textbook	The students will be introduced to the four main factors that affect the development of personality.
The Individual and Society	Students will be introduced to three theories regarding the emergence of the social self.	18.A.4	Textbook/Case Studies	Students will be introduced to three theories regarding the emergence of the social self.
The Individual and Society	Students will be able to define and provide examples of socialization.	18.A.4	In Class Activity/Textbook	Students will be able to define and provide examples of socialization.
The Individual and Society	Students will learn to list and explain several important agents of socialization in American culture.	18.A.4	Textbook	Students will list and explain several important agents of socialization in American culture.
The Individual and Society	Students will learn to identify the factors that have led to the emergence of adolescence as a distinct phase of life in the U.S.	18.A.4	Textbook	Students will identify the factors that have led to the emergence of adolescence as a distinct phase of life in the U.S.
The Individual and Society	Students will be introduced to the five general characteristics of adolescence.	18.A.4	Textbook/Supplemental Reading	Students will describe the five general characteristics of adolescence.
The Individual and Society	The students will learn to identify the factors that lead to dating taking the place of courtship in American culture.	18.A.4	Textbook/Culminating Project	The students will identify the factors that lead to dating taking the place of courtship in American culture.
The Individual and Society	The students will learn to define deviance list several of its social functions.	18.B.5	Textbook/Culminating Project	The students will define deviance list several of its social functions.
The Individual and Society	The students will be introduced to several theories used to explain deviance.	18.B.5	In Class Activity/Textbook	The students will describe several theories used to explain deviance.
Social Inequality	The students will learn to identify the basic characteristics of class and caste social systems.	18.B.5	Textbook	The students will identify the basic characteristics of class and caste social systems.
Social Inequality	The students will learn to explain social stratification.	18.B.5	In Class Activity/Textbook	The students will learn to explain social stratification.
Social Inequality	The students will learn to identify several types of social mobility.	18.B.5	In Class Activity/Textbook	The students will identify several types of social mobility.
Social Inequality	The students will learn to identify the main sources of discrimination and prejudice.	18.B.5	Textbook	The students will identify the main sources of discrimination and prejudice.

HS Sociology

Social Inequality	The students will learn to describe the five most common patterns of minority group treatment.	16.D.5 (US) & (W)	Textbook/Supplemental Reading	The students will describe the five most common patterns of minority group treatment.
-------------------	--	-------------------	-------------------------------	---